

Refugees at German Universities

REFUGEES WELCOME?

CONFERENCE

13/05/2016

10:00–19:30

VENUE

Langenbeck–Virchow–Haus
Luisenstraße 58/59
10117 Berlin (Mitte)

Infos at:

<http://www.diejungeakademie.de/en/refugeeswelcome>

Die Junge Akademie

PROGRAM | FRIDAY 13/05/2016

10:00–11:00 | KEYNOTE 1 | Manuela Bojadžijev
Juniorprofessor for Globalized Cultures (Lüneburg)
Hochschule ohne Grenzen. Paradoxien der Integration
von Geflüchteten

11:00–12:00 | KEYNOTE 2 | Yasemin Karakaşoğlu
Zugang von Geflüchteten zur Universität – von InTOUCH bis HERE. Ein Erfahrungsbericht aus der Universität Bremen

18:00–19:30 | PANEL DISCUSSION
Universities in the Middle of Society –
Responsibility and Sustainability in light of the 'Refugee Crisis'

13/05/2016, 10:00–19:30
Langenbeck–Virchow–Haus
Luisenstraße 58/59, 10117 Berlin (Mitte)

The keynote lectures and closing panel discussion are part of a one-day conference on refugees at German universities. They are free and open to the public. (Note that the lectures and discussion will be held in German; a translation into English will be made available)

For more information:

ORGANISATION

<http://www.diejungeakademie.de/refugeeswelcome>

Panel discussion with the following participants

Manal Altizini

Syrian-born student of medicine (Marburg/Dresden). She is going to share and analyze her experiences with the German higher education system

Prof. Dr. Julia von Blumenthal

Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences,
Humboldt University Berlin

Prof. Dr. Yasemin Karakaşoğlu

Professor of Intercultural Education and Vice Rector for Intercultural and International Relations,
University of Bremen

Dr. Stephan Dünwald

Researcher and since 2002 member of the Bavarian
Refugees Council

Swen Schulz, MdB

Member of the German Bundestag and its committee for education, research and technological impact assessment

Chair: Jan-Martin Wiarda

Freelance journalist, who has previously worked for the German newspaper Die Zeit in the education department

The German Young Academy
Dr. Silja Klepp (Bremen)
Prof. Dr. Kristina Musholt (Leipzig)
Prof. Dr. Magdalena Nowicka (Berlin)

Die Junge Akademie